

Celebrating Immigrant Heritage, Contributions, and Diversity

Thomas M. Menino
Mayor of Boston

CITY OF BOSTON

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF NEW BOSTONIANS

is proud to present

WE ARE BOSTON 2006: A Celebration of Boston's Immigrant Heritage, Contributions, and Diversity.

Tuesday, October 10, 2006 at 6:00 p.m.

Boston Convention & Exhibition Center

415 Summer Street, Boston, Massachusetts

Please join us for an extraordinary evening as we honor

United States Senator Edward M. Kennedy

and other city leaders with the presentation of the

2006 NEW BOSTONIAN LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Throughout history, Boston has been a destination of immigrants who come here for many different reasons. We join to affirm the diverse communities in every age, from every nation, that make up Boston's essential identity as a community of immigrants. Pride in our role as a gateway to the American dream and our historical commitment to freedom and justice will fuel this evening of multicultural performance, cuisine, and celebration. New and old Bostonians alike will come together to recognize the remarkable and diverse talents that have made immigrants so integral to the fabric of our city.

Mayor Thomas M. Menino will honor the outstanding accomplishments of individuals and organizations who have made significant contributions in embracing Boston's diversity and who have helped New Bostonian Communities to fully participate in the economic, civic, cultural, and social life of the City.
